Terra Rossa Wine Club and Hundred Of Comaum Vineyard

The Works of Tim Storrer and the Philosophy of Art

Tim Storrer's large work, "Ocean Scene" will be on display to incite spirited discussion on the views of Plato and Nietzsche on Art. Plato was critical of art and artists, but was he actually critical of Greek realism? Did Wagner's christianity turn Nietzsche into a god-killer?

Date: Saturday, 14 and Sunday, 15 May
Time: 12pm – 5pm, daily
Location: Terra Rossa Wine Club, 48 Church Street, Penola
Cost: Food and wines available from à la carte menu
Bookings: Preferred, Steve Moignard, 08 8737 3350

Sunday, 15 May

Writers Forum

Fiona McIntosh and Jane Jolly will be joined by local identity, Doug Balnaves, for reminiscing about their recent trips to different countries for different reasons and what has resulted from their experiences. This interesting group of writers will be hosted by Bryan Dawe.

Date: Sunday, 15 May
Time: 10am – 11am
Location: Memorial Marquee, Church Street, Penola
Cost: $5 per person, bookings not required

Saturday, 21 & Sunday, 22 May

Terra Rossa Wine Club and Hundred Of Comaum Vineyard

The works of David Bromley, Graham Fransella and the Philosophy of Art

David Bromley's large work, "Ali" and a large work by Graham Fransella will be on display to incite spirited discussion on the views of Bourdieu and Foucault on Art. While observing the shifts in the structure of power and thought in Europe, Foucault correctly predicted anarchy in art. Is art a reflection of oppression, or a function of social position?

Date: Saturday, 21 and Sunday, 22 May
Time: 12pm – 5pm, daily
Location: Terra Rossa Wine Club, 48 Church Street, Penola
Cost: Food and wines available from à la carte menu
Bookings: Preferred, Steve Moignard 08 8737 3350
